Hi there everyone.

Don't tell me I never give you anything! Yesterday we took delivery of lots and lots and lots and - oh you get the picture, of material. Material suitable for clothes, for patchwork, for upholstery, for soft furnishings etc. And you can have as much as you can carry home, free, with no strings attached. For those of you who were members a couple of years ago, I am sure you will remember Rosemary Blesing. Rosemary's daughter has donated all her mother's sewing materials and we thank her sincerely for the gift.

Next Thursday at 1pm there will be a talk on Retirement Villages - something nearly all of us consider at some stage in our mature years. Should we, shouldn't we? Will we, won't we? Well here is your chance to have all your questions answered by Patrick Wyburn and others. The details are on the attached poster.

Now I know I really do not have to remind you of this because you have already put a big red ring around the date on your calendar, but hey I like to think that I am useful for something. Y Naturally you already know that on Friday, 25th November at 10am there is the Kalamunda Community Learning Centre's General Meeting. This is not an AGM which is all the official stuff like electing people, nor is it the usual Friday committee meeting which deals with stuff like having enough toilet rolls and tea bags but rather the bigger things at the Centre where we make decisions on improvements at the Centre or in the Creche. And for that we need YOU. So be there! After all I did give you all that free material.

For those who are already looking for exclusive Chrissy presents this is something that might interest you.

This is an Exhibition and sale of gifts from well established and talented textile artists. You may be interested in it.

feel free to forward onto anyone else that may be interested.

Now you know everything.

Ciao Katherine
